

Key Childhood Skills and Knowledge involved in Learning to Get Dressed Part 2:

Cognitive skills - The mental skills involved in every day thinking, knowing, reasoning and remembering. Examples include knowing the right order to put on clothes and the ability to choose appropriate clothes based on activity and weather. Also included in this area are language skills such as the naming of different pieces of clothing and awareness of the time of day and relative condition of the day.